Things are Movin’ in the 9!

For Lasting Improvements for Fitness and Energy in the 9th Ward, check out the information below!

Daughters of Charity:
Daughters of Charity Health Center - St. Cecilia offers a range of services: primary care, behavioral health, dental, pharmacy, prenatal care, and women, infants and children (WIC).

1030 Lesseps St. NOLA, 70117

Monday-Thursday: 8am-5pm
Friday: 8am-2pm

(504) 941-6041
http://dcsno.org/

Baptist Community Health Services:
BCHS provides quality primary healthcare to individuals in medically underserved communities. Featured services include: adult medicine, women’s health, pediatrics, and prenatal care.

Now at four great locations!
4960 St. Claude Ave. NOLA 70117
4209 St. Claude Ave. NOLA 70117
1616 Caffin Ave. NOLA 70117
221 W. Genie St. Chalmette, LA 70043

(504) 533-4999
http://bchsnola.org/

Stallings St. Claude Recreation Center:
This Upper 9th Ward community center features rooms that can be used for dance, music, and activities, as well as a recreation field, pool, basketball court, parking area, and bike racks.

4300 St. Claude Ave. NOLA 70117

(504) 658-3053
http://nordc.org/parks/stallingsstclaude/

Sanchez Multi-Purpose Center:
This Lower 9th Ward community center offers many recreational rooms and programs, including a fitness center, indoor pool and basketball courts, dance studio and stage, music and game rooms, arts and crafts classes, computer lab, reading room, health clinic, senior center, and NOPD substation.

1616 Caffin Ave. NOLA 70117

(504) 658-3059
http://nordc.org/parks/sanchez

Many thanks to our Program Champions!

- A Coommunity Voice
- ACS of Caffin SDA Church
- AKILI
- All Souls Episcopal Church
- Backyard Gardeners Network
- Baptist Community Health Services
- Bunny Friend Neighborhood
- Burnell’s Plaza
- Castillo Blanco
- Cutting Up on the Avenue
- Dancing Grounds
- Global Green
- Lowernine.org
- Make It Right
- New Testament Baptist Church
- NOLA Village Market
- NOLA Warehouse Outlet
- Poppas Seafood
- Private Collections Boutique
- Progressive Community Health Center
- Spacewalks Snoballs & Catering
- St. Claude Internet Cafe
- Team Happy
- Tekrema Center
- The Renaissance Project
- We Serve
- ...with more added every week!
Food for Seniors:
Catholic Charities’ Food for Families & Seniors program serves senior citizens (age 60+), who are residents of the state of Louisiana and who meet federal poverty income guidelines. Participants receive a 40 lb. food box, distributed monthly at the following sites:

Bethel AME Church
1437 Caffin Ave.

Greater Mt. Carmel Baptist Church
1614 Pauline St.

Our Lady Star of the Sea
1927 St. Roch Ave.

St. Mary of the Angels
3501 N. Miro St.
(504) 245-7207
http://www.ccano.org/food-for-families-seniors/

Second Harvest Food Bank:
Second Harvest offers a wide range of services, including food distribution, Children’s Backpack Program, Kids’ Summer Feeding Programs, senior care and feeding, nutrition education, & mobile and school pantries.

700 Edwards St. NOLA 70123
(504) 872-9214 or 1-855-392-9338
help@secondharvest.org
http://no-hunger.org/

The Renaissance Project:
This non-profit organization aims to improve access to fresh food, improve education opportunities, boost economic development, and celebrate culture in communities of color.

5234 N. Claiborne Ave. NOLA 70117
(504) 942-2500
http://therenaissanceproject.la/

Sankofa Community Development Corporation:
Sankofa offers a number of community programs, a mobile market, and manages three community gardens:
• 27 St. Claude Court
• 2149 Tennessee St.
• 2001 Independence St.

Fresh Stop and Mobile Market Locations:
5029 St. Claude Ave.
Saturdays 9:30am-12:30pm
Sanchez Center, 1616 Caffin Ave.
Tuesdays 11-11:30am
Mercy Endeavors Center, 1017 St. Andrews St.
Every other Tuesday 12-12:30pm
VA Medical Center, 1601 Perdido St.
Fridays 10am-12pm
Treme Education Center, 2200 Barracks St.
Wednesdays 10-11am
(504) 872-9214
http://www.sankofa.org/

Backyard Gardeners Network:
This Lower Ninth Ward organization uses food growing traditions to help revitalize the neighborhood and preserve cultural heritage. BGN has two community gardens: Laurentine Ernst Community Garden & Guerilla Garden
http://backyardgardenersnetwork.org/

Garden on Marais:
This agricultural gathering space provides educational opportunities and access to nutrient-rich foods for community residents.

4600 Marais St. NOLA 70117
http://gardenonmarais.blogspot.com/